Why Product Management?

Rewarding Career Path

Product Management is seen as an in-demand tech job driving growth and innovation. In 2022, 44% of companies were looking to hire product managers.

High Earning Potential

Product management offers a lucrative career opportunity with a base salary ranging from €54,000 to €72,000 for product managers. Increasing as you develop into more senior roles.

Who is this course for?

- This course is ideal for professionals working in product management or related fields, such as marketing, product development and innovation, design, or technology, who want to advance their product-related skills and knowledge.
- Individuals looking to transition into a career in product management will find the course beneficial.
- Strategists and business leaders will find value in accessing up-to-date and relevant frameworks which will drive product-led growth.

What can you expect to learn?

- During this six module course, you will learn how to set up a customer-centric product strategy, informing your value proposition, product development, measurement and roadmap to ensure differentiation in the market.
- Balancing business requirements with the best interests of the product and customer. Incorporating insights from market, competitor, and customer research, you will learn how to map the customer journey and draft a business case used to influence stakeholders. Culminating in the delivery of a product roadmap.

Curriculum Overview

Module 1 – Know your role and market

Compare the position of a product, business, and its audience relative to its competitor landscape to isolate compelling opportunities.

Module 2 – Know your customer

Improve your listening skills in order to map an accurate customer journey based on qualitative insights.

Module 3 – Product steering

Define the customer's problem and frame an effective value proposition. Prioritise features using the KANO model.

Module 4 – Prototype, test, build, learn

Interpret insights from user stories to construct a list of product development requirements for an MVP. Explore lean discovery and development principles.

Module 5 – Drive business value through measurement

Identify meaningful metrics (OKRs and KPIs) to justify product development priorities accounting for business objectives.

Module 6 – The zen of roadmap maintenance

Create product roadmap, justifying delivery plans in order to maximise business and customer value.

What do our customers say?

Katie Hudson

Senior Product Operations Manager

If you want a course where you sit in front of a screen and listen to a PowerPoint, this is not the course for you. If you want a course that is actually engaging, practical and will let you use real examples, it's really helpful. The skills that I gained from the course definitely helped me in my interview process to the next step.

Ashley Mclean

Product Designer

I liked how we were collaborating. That's what sets Growth Tribe apart from the course that I did with Coursera, which wasn't interactive. I'm a person who likes collaboration.

Merran Wrigley

Group Marketing Director

As a brand and marketing professional, I found the course entry to approaching my work in a more data-driven and analytical way. I know I will start benefiting from this new knowledge from the first day back in the office. So the investment in terms of time and money will be immediate to both me and my company.

Zsafia Lele
Co-founder &
Growth Manager
Pippadu

"It exceeded all my expectations. I started it just after I got a new job as Product & Digital Marketer in a startup and the course gave me a huge boost. It was really practical, exactly what I needed and I could implement what I learned right away."

Theodor Andrei
Growth Marketer
Marveltest

"Growth Tribe challenges the status quo of universities / MBA programs / etc which have fallen behind in terms of teaching people skills for the data age. You learn far more in one of their 12-week classes than an entire top-tier 3-year degree."
